Instructor:
Donna Kuzemka

Donna has over thirty years of experience in designing & developing computer training curriculum for individuals as well as businesses. As a Training Manager for a major technology sales organization, she was responsible for working with individuals, as well as corporate clients, to ensure smooth transitions to various application upgrades. Her business practice and application knowledge allow her to quickly customize training delivery, ensuring that participants get the most from their time together and learn to work “smarter, not harder” when they have completed the training.
